NUMBER 38

VILLA IS NOW ON THE RUN

Bandit Chief and Followers are Making Efforts to Reach the Mountains.

Villa has doubled east and south to Namiqipa, according to a telegram received by Gen. Gavira at Juarez. He reports that Carranza troops are advancing from the south, while the Americans are continuing their march from the north in an effort to close the net around the bandit.

Gen. Gavira said he knew nothing of the American troops except that they are hard on the chase. Nor has he any details of the Carranza troops co-operating in the movement. Col. Gano was the closest to Villa at last reports, as his advance posts came within sight of Villa's fleeing rear guard at El Valle.

After leaving El Valle, where he had abandoned thirty of his wounded, Villa turned directly west to San Miguel Babicora, said Gavira, who explained that he had learned the Babicora where Villa was reported Monday was San Miguel Babicora and not the Babicora near the lake of that name, some miles further to the south on Mrs. Phoebe Hearst's ranch. San Miguel Babicora is about twenty miles west of El Valle. From that point Villa made a sudden twist and struck toward Namiqipa, forty miles south.

A clash between the Villista and Carranzista forces is imminent, according to advices received Monday through Gen. Vavira. Villa, fleeing south before the rapidly advancing American troops, is apparently trying to break through the Mexican-American cordon closing in on him. He is seeking a loop-hole in the direction of Namiqipa through which he can escape into the mountains around Guerrero and Santa Ana, the familiar ground where he began his bandit career.

PIG CLUB

Next Monday at nine o'clock a Boy's Pig Club will be organized at the County High School. Any boy in the county who is between the ages of ten and eighteen is eligible to enter. All who are interested in the raising of pure bred hogs are invited to be present.

SCHOOL BUILDING BURNS

In a telegram to Mr. E. Y. Nelson from his son, Robert, received here Saturday it was stated that fire had destroyed the school and all the cottages of K. M. L. at Eau Gallie, Fla. The fire started in Mr. Nelson's cottage and he barely managed to escape losing all his clothing, equipment, etc.

Eau Gallie is the winter quarters of the Kentucky Military Institute, owned by Col. C. W. Fowler, of Lyndon, Ky. Col. Fowler is well known in this city where he formerly resided and has many friends here who will regret to learn of his loss. Mr. Nelson and many of the other students lost all of their clothing.

For Rent or Sale

Seven room dwelling and 2 acres of land. Ring 107 or 484 for information.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICE

The fiftieth anniversary of Rev. E. L. Southgate and the twentieth anniversary of Rev. Clyde Darsie, of this city, was celebrated at the Christian church Sunday night and a large crowd was present and a delightful program rendered. Mr. Southgate made a most interesting talk as did also Mr. Darsie. Miss Alta Evans rendered a solo and Mrs. Roger Drake and Mrs. John W. Burbridge a duet, and Prof. Bruce Reynolds played a violin solo. It is the sincere wish of the many friends of these two excellent gentlemen that they be long spared to continue their good works.

DEATH COMES SUDDENLY

Mr. William B. Greene Dies at His Home Monday Morning After Short Illness.

Mr. William Greene departed this life Monday, March 20th at 9:45 o'clock a. m. He was a son of William Greene, deceased, and was born in this county Nov. 12, 1856. He was married Dec. 14, 1881 to Miss Ella Wilkerson, who with four children, Cecil S. Greene, T. M. Greene, and Mrs. Reid McKee, and Mrs. W. Caldwell Clay, and three grandchildren, Howard Wethers Greene, William Caldwell Clay, Jr., and W. R. McKee, Jr., survive him. He is also survived by one brother, Henry L. Greene, of this county, and two sisters, Mrs. Lillie McLaughlin, of Covington, and Mrs. Margaret Crail, of this city.

He was a member of the Baptist church, having united with the church under the ministry of the late and lamented Rev. J. Morgan Wells, and was ordained a deacon during the pastorate of Rev. T. Benton Hill.

Funeral service will be conducted by pastor, Rev. J. S. Wilson at the grave in Macphelah cemetery this (Wednesday) afternoon at two o'clock.

Mr. Greene was stricken with apoplexy, early Sunday morning, responded to treatment, but the second attack which occurred about six o'clock of the same day was more serious and from this he never rallied. His family were with him when the end came.

Mr. Greene was an extensive dealer in livestock in this and adjoining counties and no man within his circle was more generally or favorably known. He will be greatly missed, for he was in truth a great helper to the farmers in this and adjoining counties. An affectionate husband, a kind and indulgent father and friend, when his great heart ceased its beating, the community was shocked and a heavy gloom came over his numerous friends. His was an active life in that he kept volumes of money in circulation. Announcing the death of this strong man brings real sorrow, and by it we are reminded that "in the midst of life we are in death." All is not ended in death for memory lives to cherish virtues and to recall loving deeds.

The good people of Montgomery know the life of William Greene, which will continue to speak with the passing ages. A good citizen, rich in the confidence of his people was he. Peace to his ashes.

"In the Bible we read of a beautiful land, Where sorrow and pain never come; For Jesus is there with a Heavenly hand, And 'tis there he's prepared us a home."

CATTLE MARKET GOOD MONDAY

About Two Thousand Cattle, Fair Run of Mules But Only a Few Good Horses.

About 2,000 cattle on the market. The quality was common. Trade was slow, nothing like the trade a month ago. No 1,000 lb. cattle on the market, except oxen. Light stuff of decent quality sold very high, any where from 8 to 10 cents when sold by the head. Heifers at 6 to 7 cents. Cows 6 to 6½ cents. Canners at 4 cents. Bulls at 6 to 6½ cents. Good crowd at the pens and while trade was not brisk, steady buying through the day about cleared the pens by night. While nearly all sales were made by the head we caught a few sales.

SALES

Horton Bros. bought 25 about 400 lb. heifers at $27 from Ledford & Co.

D. J. Burchett bought 25 yearling steers of about 400 lbs. at $32 per head from Stock Yards Co. The same party sold a yoke of 2,300 lb. oxen to N. B. Hoskins at 7½ cents.

Mike Wilson sold 7 about 500 lb. heifers to R. A. Riggs, of Middlebourne, W. Va., at $33 per head.

Sam Laytham, of Bath county, bought 9 700 lb. cows at $40 and six about 600 lb. heifers at $41 per head of W. P. Treadway.

Hughes & Lyon sold a bunch of about 320 lb. heifer calves to Mr. Lovely at $20 per head. Same party sold 32 about 400 lb. steers to B. M. Ratliff, of Bath county, at $32 per head.

S. Cannoy sold a bunch of about 600 lb. heifers at $43 per head to Wm. Evans, of Bath county.

A. I. Hughes sold a carload of 130 lb. shorts to Wm. M. Campbell, of Midway, Ky., at 8 cents and 7 about 700 lb. cows (canners), at $27 per head.

Geo. Hulseby sold 3 900 lb. fat cows to Gay Wilson at 6½ cents.

Sam Wheeler sold 11 about 600 lb. cows (canners), to Chas. Rose at $3.85 per hundred.

Sam Keeton sold 24 about 600 lb. steers to Sam Robertson at $44 per head.

Mike Wilson sold 21 about 500 lb. heifers to G. A. Riggs, of West Virginia, at $32 per head.

Geo. Halsey sold 13 1,000 lb. oxen to Mr. Rittenhouse at 5½ cents.

A. L. Tipton bought 10 about 300 lb. steer calves of Mike Wilson at $28 per head.

HORSES AND MULES

Not a great many mules on the market. Prices were high, buyers claiming they were too high for them to buy any. Later in the day trading was better and a good many mules were sold. Many mules were sold, good ones selling as high as $200. Good horses were scarce and high.

Horse Training

I am now located at the Fair Grounds and will train, tame and educate horses for the public and will be glad to handle any disagreeable or unruly horse, in any habits on approval and will at the same time train colts. Everything that goes to make up a desirable horse. Teaching the saddle horse a speciality. Will teach all saddle gaits and high-school action. For further information communicate with me at A. B. Setter's Livery Stable, phone 135. Prof. O. M. Heath.

EXCELLENT LADY DEAD

After a lingering illness, Mrs. John W. Cecil died at her home near Judy, this county, Tuesday morning. Mrs. Cecil was 40 years of age and had been a member of the M. E. Church South since early girlhood, her membership being at Sharpsburg. She was a most devout Christian woman, ever ready to aid those in sickness and distress and her kindness will long be remembered by those with whom she came in contact. She is survived by her husband, two daughters and three sons, six brothers, Messrs. J. L. J. P. J. M., B. F., of Texas, H. C., of Louisiana, and W. W. Quicksall, of this county, two sisters, Mrs. E. E. Bishop, of Thomasville, Ga., and Mrs. W. W. Swango, of Winchester. The funeral services will be conducted today (Wednesday), at the residence, near Judy at 1 p. m. by Revs. J. L. West and B. F. Cosby with burial in Macphelah cemetery. To the grief stricken family the Advocate extends sympathy.

SHORTAGE IN PAPER MATERIAL

Hon. Wm. C. Redfield, Secretary of the Department of Commerce, is sending out circulars all over the United States regarding the shortage in paper materials and urging the public to be more careful in the destruction of rags and old papers as the drain now being made upon the sources of supplies is enormous. The prices of all kinds of papers has advanced by leaps and bounds.

For the good, reliable "Centemeri Kid Glove" go to The Novelty Store.

PLACES AGENCY

Mr. Eli Bean, of Winchester, manufacturer of San-Wi-Cheese, was in this city Monday and placed the agency for the preparation with T. K. Barnes & Sons. This preparation is said to be one of the best of its kind on the market. See advertisement in this paper.

Good steaks, roasts, fowls, etc., at C. S. Humphries & Co. ($7-tf)

ELECTED CHAIRMAN

By the unanimous vote of the County Committee Mr. Ben W. Hall was chosen Chairman of the Montgomery County Republican Committee Monday morning. Mr. L. G. Howard was chosen as Secretary and Mr. C. G. Pangburn, Treasurer.
